EL PASO, Texas — Crimes Against Persons are investigating the shooting that occurred this morning at Gateway E and Lee Trevino. Patrol officers responded to the shooting call just before five a.m. Two victims with non-life threatening gunshot wounds were transported to a nearby hospital and three other victims who were uninjured remained at the scene. The shooting occurred after the victims all left a nearby “gentlemen’s club” in the same vehicle and were followed by a person(s) in another vehicle. As the victims were driving on Gateway E. they were shot at from the other vehicle.
